Community service means to give or do for the need or want of another. It means to put others before you for the well being of something. There is no tiny act. It can also be with or for your community, a place where you feel a sense of safety or unity.